General inclusions

Student fees are inclusive of almost all associated educational costs including classroom costs, writing books, paper, folders, pens, rulers, art and craft materials, text books, paints, and library costs.

Student fees also include the cost of most camps, trips and excursions, all visiting performances at the school and elsewhere, sporting activities and outdoor education, including bus costs.

Camps and class trips

High school students attend an overseas trip, and older primary students may attend a ski trip. These may incur an additional cost to parents, and parents will be advised in advance.

Music Programme

Class 1 parents are required to purchase a wooden recorder at $70. If your child enrolls later in their primary school years, they may need to purchase a recorder and your class teacher will advise if this is required.

Class 3 parents are required to purchase a ½ size violin, and the class teacher will advise when this is needed.

Class 5 students are required to continue with violin or select another instrument, and parents are required to purchase their chosen instrument.

These instruments remain the property of the student/family. In some instances, students are required to pay for their own musical tuition at the school. Parents are advised of this at the commencement of the school year.

Group music lessons are offered to all students at Kindlehill. Student may choose one instrument to study in our group music programme.
